Presiding officer Eric Stabb's remarks:

Dr. Stabb reported on recent University Council business, specifically that the University Curriculum Committee has revised and clarified the definition of Centers and Institutes. Additional information can be found in University Council minutes.

Dean Stokes' Remarks:

Dean Stokes noted that she has authorized only a very small number of faculty recruitments to date but is optimistic that additional recruitment will be approved. The Dean then thanked the faculty for their continued excellence and patience during this budget crisis.

New Business:

The Franklin College Curriculum Committee offered the following proposal and motion, which was unanimously approved:

Motion that EPSY 4061, Foundation of Human Motivation, be approved as a course to meet the Franklin College Diversity Requirement.

Committee Reports:

Academic Standards Committee: No new business was reported.

Curriculum Committee: Ron Orlando reported approval of 4 new courses and 3 course changes.

Executive Committee: No new business was reported.

Faculty Affairs: Ray Freeman-Lynde reported the committee is drafting an on-line survey for the five-year review of Dean Stokes and welcomed editorial comments from the senate.

Committee on Planning and Evaluation: Roger Stahl reported the committee had met with representatives of the Graduate Council regarding the issues of Graduate Faculty Status. The senate discussed possible options that might be proposed to streamline or modify the current policy of Graduate Faculty Status.

Adjournment:

The meeting was adjourned at 4:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan Tanner, Secretary and Senator from Anthropology
